

Samuel Louissaint

123B E Longview St | Chapel Hill, North Carolina 27516 | (336) 954-7079 | sam15@live.unc.edu

Objective

Driven undergraduate who strives to constantly learn and improve his skills. Passionate about the uses of machine learning in creating more efficient management of resources and improving quality of life outcomes. Capable of thinking critically, both collaboratively and independently, to complete projects.

Education

B.A in Economics | May 2021 | University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

- Minors: Statistics & Analytics | PPE (Philosophy, Politics, and Economics)

Skills

Data Analytics & Visualization

- R | Python | Microsoft Excel | Microsoft PowerPoint | Stata | ggplot2

Employment History

Office Assistant, August 2018 – Present | Carolina Housing, Chapel Hill, NC

- Maintained correspondences with residents as well as colleagues to maintain proper communication using Microsoft Teams.
- Managed inventory database within the community office using Microsoft Excel.
- Cooperated with colleagues to achieve community engagement initiatives and goals.
- Demonstrated critical thinking in dynamic situations involving residents of the community.

Investment Analyst Intern, October 2019 – August 2020 | NanoVest, Chapel Hill, NC

- Performed research on funding proposals with the goal of identifying investment opportunities in medicine.
- Produced detailed investment reports containing industry trends and market analysis for senior executives.

Human Resources Assistant, September 2017 – May 2018 | UNC Chemistry Department, Chapel Hill, NC

- Processed and compiled wage data into Microsoft Excel documents for analysis.
- Examined the accuracy of pay stubs and other documents for monthly audits.
- Calculated the allocation budget in preparation for subsequent pay periods.

Extracurricular Activities

Co-Founder and Treasurer, Heels Against Hunger (Club) August 2019 - Present

- Facilitated events and partnerships with organizations within Orange County to provide food shelters with over 200 meals weekly.
- Implemented budgeting and marketing techniques to increase public awareness of the organization.
- Planned and successfully executed club events targeting a large university audience.
- Cooperated with a group to draft the club's constitution (i.e., bylaws, procedures, and general structure of the organization).

Volunteer, UNC APPLES Service-Learning

Spring 2019